PRAYERS OF THE SOCIETY.

BEFORE THEY COMMENCE BUSINESS.

PREVENT us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour; and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Amen.

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all works of piety and charity do proceed, we beseech Thee to visit with Thy favour our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, and so rule her heart, that she may in all things seek Thy honor and glory. Prosper with Thy blessing the designs of this Society. Comfort with Thy grace those benefactors who contribute to its support. Bless the ministry of Thy servants, the Clergy; the endeavours of all who are engaged in spreading the knowledge of true religion in the dominions of our Sovereign, and the labours of those Missionaries who are promoting the same in this Province. And may Thy Holy Spirit direct all our consultations to the advancement of Thy glory, and the good of Thy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Amen.

O MERCIFUL GOD, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that Thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but that he should be converted and live: Have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to Thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end.—Amen.

OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.—Amen.

WHEN THE BUSINESS IS ENDED.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all, evermore.—Amen.

REPORT.

WE are again met together, as members of a Society formed to maintain and extend the Church of Christ. This should give a solemn tone to all our proceedings. The present is an age remarkable for combinations for various temporal objects,—we profess to be united to advance the eternal interests of our fellow men. If success in the least degree attends such an effort, the object gained far outweighs in importance the highest earthly attainment for which the greatest zeal and energy are combined. It is an amazing thought,—but in carrying on the work of this Society we may be fellow-helpers with Him “to whom all power in heaven and in earth is committed.” In such a cause the wisest and the best of men have not counted their own lives too dear.

But enormous is the work we have undertaken—to afford the means by which the spiritual destitution in this vast Diocese may be relieved. Depending on our own efforts, or the help of man, the very attempt would be hopeless; but “if God be for us who can be against us?” Let the members of the Church unite sincerely and heartily in the work, and faith and hope will crown it with success.

A two fold blessing upon our labours may be looked for, and has, we trust, already been afforded. In imparting to others the means of salvation, the Church has herself gained strength. By our frequent meetings her members hold more communion with one another; many are “ready to give and glad to distribute,” who otherwise might never “have laid by in store a good foundation;” the laity take their part in the work, and the hands of the Clergy are strengthened by their sympathy and co-operation.

The Society is this year called to mourn over the departure of one of its earliest and most steadfast friends. Wheresoever its members meet, or its funds are expended, the memory of the Honorable Ward Chipman, late Chief Justice of New Brunswick, will be cherished with gratitude. Ever one of the most generous contributors to the Society, by his large bequest to further its objects we see how one of unquestioned piety and sound judgment estimated the work in which we are engaged.

From the returns of the Local Committees, of which the following is an abstract, we shall find a favourable report of the funds of the Society for the present year, and an increasing interest in its prosperity.

ST. ANDREWS.—Rev. J. Alley, D. D., writes, that the amount of contributions from this Committee are not quite as large as last year. Not, he adds, but the same good feeling exists towards the Society as heretofore amongst the members of the Church, but their ability to aid its objects does not keep pace with their will. Dr. Alley regrets, that owing to the severity of the season, he cannot venture on so long a journey to attend the meeting. "I have laboured," he writes, "in the Colonial Church for thirty three years, and feel mortified at being, under present regulations, compelled to absent myself."—Contributions, £16 1 9: 1st Collection, 22d June 1851, £2 6 2: 2nd do. 14th Dec., £1 16 9: Total, general purposes, £20 4 8.

CAMPO BELLO.—Rev. J. Alley, D. D., has made the collections in this place, and remitted to the Treasurer, through Capt. Robinson, the sum of £4 15s. for general purposes. The Committee request the usual grant of Books and Tracts.

GREENWICH and PETERSVILLE.—Rev. J. Bartholomew writes, that this Local Committee beg to renew their former expressions of gratitude for the continued liberality of the Society towards that Mission. They cannot but hope that the services of the Church having been kept up at the different stations during the year, the Divine blessing has attended the labours of the Missionary.

A Confirmation was held in the Parish Church of Greenwich in August last, when twenty three young persons ratified their baptismal vows, five of whom afterwards received the holy Communion. A similar number had been prepared for confirmation in Petersville, but the severe indisposition of the Bishop caused its postponement.

The Committee are gratified to report the commencement of a new Church in the Douglas Valley, which affords promise of being extensively useful. This work originated with Dr. R. Bayard and other gentlemen in the neighbourhood. The frame is already erected on a substantial stone foundation. The nave is 46 by 24 feet, with a capacious chancel. It is calculated to hold 250 persons, and the seats will be entirely free. The people in the vicinity have contributed in good proportion to their means, and through the zeal of Dr. Bayard aid has been procured in other quarters. The land on which the Church is built has been legally transferred. As much is yet required to complete the work, the Committee earnestly solicit as large a grant as the Society can bestow.

Contributions from Greenwich, £5 6 10: 1st Collection, £1: 2nd do. £1 2 6: Sale of Books, 5s. 10d.—£7 15 2: Petersville, £3 18s.: 1st Collection, £1 7s.: 2nd do. £1 3s.: 3rd do. £1—£7 8s.: Total, £15 3 2.

CHATHAM.—Rev. Samuel Bacon, on behalf of the Chatham Local Committee, reports that their annual meeting was held after morning prayer in Saint Paul's Church on the 22nd December 1850, when it was unanimously resolved, that this Committee return humble and hearty thanks to Almighty God for the munificent sum bequeathed by the late Chief Justice Chipman toward the augmentation of the funds of the Diocesan Church Society, which is an evident proof of the high estimation in which this wise and benevolent man held the Institution, and which moreover this Committee cannot help viewing as an earnest of its future prosperity. It is their earnest prayer that others may be thus stimulated to imitate the liberality of this great and good man, and that the Society may become (under the Divine blessing) what this Committee have ever anticipated, the main support of the Church in this Colony.

The Committee also return thanks for the grant of books, which have proved a valuable acquisition to their Sunday School Library. Contributions for general purposes, £17 8 5: 1st semi-annual Sermon, £5 15s.: 2nd do. £2 5s.: Total, £25 8 5.

HARVEY and HOPEWELL.—Rev. C. P. Bliss, in forwarding the returns from this Mission, regrets that the amount is not larger, which he states to be owing to calls upon the members of the congregation, who are but poorly blessed with this world's goods, to finish their Church. The Church at Harvey, it appears, is very nearly finished. He hopes soon to have service in it. The small Church at New Ireland was consecrated last summer, and is attended by an orderly and devout congregation, who highly value the privilege of worshipping therein. To both these Churches the Society's aid has been kindly afforded.

The Missionary encloses an application of the Local Committee at Hopewell, for aid towards the erection of a Church in that place; and also the following Resolution—"That as in the opinion of this Committee, in consequence of the Mining operations now carried on in this part of the County, the population will necessarily increase, the consideration of the Society be called to the immediate necessity of another Missionary being sent to this County." A further supply of books is also requested.

Contributions are as follows:—Harvey, £7 18: Hopewell, £4 11 3: Total, £12 9 3.

MONCTON.—Rev. W. N. Boyer encloses a list of subscribers, and collections in this Mission, and writes, that a vote of grateful thanks to the Society for its aid in erecting the Church, and towards the support of the Missionary, was passed by that Local Committee. The Missionary adds, that the Church is so far advanced as to enable him (D. V.) to hold Divine Worship in it on Easter Day, which will be to himself and many others who have so long been deprived of the privilege of worshipping in a consecrated building, an event deeply interesting. "I trust," he says, "that the hand of a good God which has brought us hitherto, and enabled us to progress so far in the erection of a house of worship to himself, will still be with us, and enable us to appreciate our privilege, not with lip service, but by a holy and consistent life."

The number of subscribers to the Diocesan Church Society, he continues, has increased. His congregations are large and regular. Much of prejudice against the Church has died away, and her holy scriptural forms of prayer begin to be appreciated. Persons formerly opposed to it, now are seen constantly to use the Prayer Book. Several Church families have lately come to reside at Moncton, and the Missionary doubts not, as the place is increasing, his congregation will continue to increase also. Though difficulties of course exist, he feels much encouraged, as there is enough to warrant the Church "to go on and take courage."

Contributions reported for Churches and Chapels, £1 3 6½: 1st Collection, 7s. 6d.: 2nd do. 6s. 9d.: Total, £1 17 9½.

KINGSLEAR.—Rev. J. Black reports contributions from this Committee as follows:—Widows and Orphans fund, £2: general purposes, £9 7 6: 1st Collection, £2 3s.: 2nd do. £1 10: Total, £15 0 6.

GRAND MANAN.—Rev. G. T. Carey, through Dr. Alley, remits the sum of £3 10s. for general purposes, and requests a grant of books.

CARLETON.—Rev. F. Coster encloses the returns from this Committee, and writes, that he is happy to say, the amount collected is larger than last year. Contributions, £12 13s.: 1st Collection, June 15, 1851, £2 13s.: 2nd do. Dec. 7, £4 2 6: Total, general purposes, £19 10 6.

GAGETOWN.—Rev. N. A. Coster reports contributions as follows:—Books and Tracts, £2 15s.: general purposes, £6 15 9: 1st Collection, £3 0 5½: 2nd do. £1 0 8½: Total, £13 11 11.

FREDERICTON.—This Local Committee met on the 31st Dec. 1851: The Venerable the Archdeacon in the Chair; when it was unanimously resolved—

1. That whereas there is a great demand for Bibles, Prayer Books, and other works, at the Depository in this place, this Committee strongly recommend a grant for the importation of books, more especially as the usual grants made to the Local Committees cannot otherwise be supplied at this Depository.

2. That this Committee recommend an application by the General Meeting to the Legislature for an Act incorporating this Society under its present Constitution.

3. That this Committee desire to express their full and continued satisfaction in the position and operations of the Diocesan Church Society, and beg to declare their conviction that, under Providence, it may be made sufficient to meet all the wants of the Church in this Diocese.

The total amount of offerings a little exceeds that of last year. Contributions, £124 17s.: June 21st, Collection at St. Ann's Chapel, £2 3 3: do. at Christ Church, £21 16 9: Oct. 27th, do. at St. Ann's Chapel, £3 14 9: do. at Christ Church, £11 11 5: do. do. £8 9 3: Total, general purposes, £172 12 5.

MARYLAND.—The resident subscribers in this settlement have in some instances added to their contributions this year. The Lending Library is every year becoming more valued, and any addition thereto will be gratefully received. Contributions are as follows:—£5 3s. 6d.: June 23, 1st Collection, 12s.: Oct. 29, 2nd do. 18s. 11d.: Total, general purposes, £6 14 5.

BATHURST.—Rev. N. Disbrow reports the amount of contributions in his Mission as follows:—£1 4 10½: June 15, collected at St. George's Church, Bathurst, 6s. 8d.: June 22, do. at Christ Church, New Bandon, 9s. 1d.: Dec. 21, do. do. do. 5s. 6d.: Total, £2 8 1½; thus he considers as much, considering the scarcity of money, as could be expected.

SACKVILLE and DORCHESTER.—Rev. T. N. DeWolf reports contributions from Sackville, £5 6 7½: 1st Collection, 13s.: 2nd do. 10s. 9½d.—£6 10 5: and from Dorchester,

Contributions, £7 : 1st Collection, 19s. 3d. : 2nd do. £1 16 4½.—£9 15 7½ : altogether for general purposes, £16 6 0½.

An additional sum of £1 5s. has since been paid to the Treasurer.

UPHAM.—Rev. W. H. DeVeber reports contributions from this Mission to the amount of £28 4 9 ; and on the behalf of the Local Committee he thanks the Society for the grants made last year for the Churches in the Mission, of which he is sorry to say they are not yet in a condition to avail themselves. The books also were gratefully received.

PRINCE WILLIAM and DUMFRIES.—Rev. J. Elwell encloses the returns from these Committees as follows:—Contributions, £4 15 9 : Collections at offertories, £2 2 3 : Total, £6 18s.

SIMONDS.—Rev. J. W. Disbrow writes, that this Committee thank the Society for the grants made to this Parish ; they now request a grant of books, and a further grant towards the Church at Black River. He informs the Society that this Church is built upon a good stone wall ; the land is secured, and the building is partly enclosed. It would, ere this, have been completed, had not a difficulty arisen between the builder and the Committee appointed to superintend the work. If the funds can be obtained, it is intended to complete the Church next summer, and for this reason another grant is solicited. An increased amount of contributions is reported, as follows:—Widows and Orphans fund, 2s. 6d. : general purposes, £8 13 2 : 1st Collection, 16s. 1d. : 2nd do. 17s. 8½d. : Total, £10 9 5½.

SAINT JOHN.—R. Parker, Junior, Esquire, as Secretary of this Committee, reports contributions for Missionary visits, £1 : Schools, £1 : Books and Tracts, £11 : Widows and Orphans fund, £23 10s. : general purposes, £176 6 8—£212 16 8 : July 13, 1st semi-annual Sermon, £15 1 7 : Dec. 7, 2nd do. £12 6 6 : Total, £240 4 9.

ANDOVER and GRAND FALLS.—Rev. S. J. Hanford, on behalf of this Mission, thanks the Society for the grant of books, and also for the grant made last year to the Church at the Grand Falls, by means of which the building has been fitted for temporary use. The Missionary adds, "Though our number here is still but small, it has been increased considerably during the past year, and there is certainly every reason to believe, that the Grand Falls must become a place of considerable importance. The beneficial effects, therefore, from the regular services of the Church, can scarcely be overrated, and as we become more able, I trust we will be more willing to supply our wants in these respects." He further adds, that during the past year he has resided at the Grand Falls, going every third Sunday to the Churches at the Tobique and River des Chutes, (22 and 32 miles, respectively, below the Grand Falls,) at the same time visiting a station further down the River: occasionally also he has extended his visits to the mouth of the Saint Francis, 70 miles up the River. These distant services, though occupying much time, cannot well be discontinued until more labourers are sent to that destitute portion of the Diocese. Contributions reported as follows:—Books and Tracts, £2 10s : general purposes, £10 1 3 : 1st Collection, £1 10s. : 2nd do. £2 2 2 : Total, £16 3 5.

GLENELG, AND THE SETTLEMENTS ON THE SOUTH WEST BRANCH OF THE MIRAMICHI.—The Rev. J. Hudson, Visiting Missionary on the Miramichi, writes, that owing to the stormy weather, and the consequent difficulty of travelling, the usual meeting of the Glenelg Committee was not held until the 10th of January, when the following Resolution was unanimously passed:—

That the munificent bequest of £10,000 made for the pious and charitable uses of the Diocesan Church Society by the late Hon. Ward Chipman, formerly Chief Justice of this Province, should serve as an excellent example for all other true-hearted sons of the Church of England, to bequeath in their Wills "according to that they have," towards the manifold necessities of their own spiritual mother and her humble handmaiden in this Diocese—the Church Society.

In transmitting last year's Report, the Visiting Missionary was obliged to express a doubt, whether he should be able without an help-meet to dress and keep the once fallow ground, which, through the Divine blessing, he has now succeeded in partially breaking up. But he is still at his post, and is still unfriended and unassisted in his oftentimes arduous labour, except by the occasional gratuitous services of an aged lay reader at Glenelg. Another Missionary is now much wanted in this County, but means for his support are also required: God grant that both may soon be found!

But notwithstanding all his difficulties and discouragements, the Missionary is somewhat cheered in being able to add, that during the past year, the generally poor people of this district, without any special solicitation, have made some increase to their usual contributions for the good works of the Church Society.

The amount of offerings for the whole district is £22 14 8½, and books have been sold to the amount of £2 8 8, making a total of £25 3 4½.

SHERIDIAN.—Rev. Dr. Jarvis reports an amount of contributions exceeding that of last year; they are as follows:—Books & Tracts, 5s.: general purposes, £3 5s.: 1st Collection, Trinity Sunday, £2: 2nd do. Aug. 22, £1 15s.—£7 5s.: also from Cocagne, Contributions, £1 11 10: Collection at Jubilee Sermon, 8s. 2d.—£2: £9 5s.: a further remittance by Dr. Jarvis, £1 5s.: Total, £10 10s.

ST. MARY'S.—Rev. W. Jaffrey reports, that the contributions from this Mission would have far exceeded those of former years, but some few of the subscribers were obliged to devote their usual offerings towards painting the Church.

He writes, that in the various stations in which Divine service is held, the attendance continues regular, and the congregations appear to value this privilege more than formerly. The Missionary still visits Stanley once a month. He has had forty baptisms during the year; and twelve persons, some of whom were not before in communion with the Church, were confirmed last summer, at a new Church near the Nashwaak, which has been erected without aid from the Society. An increase has also taken place in the number of the communicants.

The contributions are as follows:—£11 7 6: 1st Collection, £1 0 8½: 2nd do. 17s. 3½d.: Total, general purposes, £13 5 6.

WESTMORLAND.—Rev. C. Lee writes, that this Local Committee met after morning prayer in St. Mark's Church, and passed Resolutions expressive of their thankfulness to the Society for its past aid in various ways to this Mission. The Missionary is able to report this year an increased amount of subscriptions, and trusts that the feeling of good will to the Society shewn by all those whose contributions were solicited, and their readiness to take part in the good work, may not decrease. Contributions are as follows:—£13 2 9: 1st Collection on Whit Sunday, 12s. 6d.: 2nd do. Oct. 12, at St. Mark's, £2 5 7: Nov. 16, at Bay Verte, 17s.: Sale of books, £1 3 8: Total, general purposes, £18 1 6.

WESTFIELD.—Rev. C. Milner encloses contributions, £3 17 8½: 1st Collection, £1 3s. 1½d.: 2nd do. Nerepis, 5s. 2d.: do. Cheyne, 4s.: Total, general purposes, £5 10s.

ST. GEORGE.—Rev. J. M'Givern encloses the returns from this Committee, and the following Resolutions:—

1. That the Report of the Society's proceedings for the past year affords much cause of thankfulness to Almighty God for his abundant blessing on its labours.
2. That, looking at the Constitution of this Society, the several benevolent and christian objects which it seeks to accomplish, and the steady progress it has made amongst the members of our Church since the arrival of the Bishop in the Colony, this Committee desire to record their full and unabated confidence in the Diocesan Church Society.
3. That we thank the Society for the grant of books, and request this year a separate appropriation for the sister Church at Penfield.

"I rejoice," he says, "that among the members of the Church in this Mission, I have not met one solitary case of objection or opposition to the good cause. The people are, with few exceptions, poor, and if they have not been able to give much, they have given out of their little, freely and cheerfully."

The contributions are,—From St. George. £10 4 6: 1st Collection, £1 4 5: 2nd do. £1 4s. 8d.—£12 13 7: Penfield, £2 13 7: Total, £15 7 2.

SUSSEX.—Rev. Thos. M'Ghee writes, that he cannot collect money for the Church Society this year, as his people have just been called upon to pay a considerable amount for improvements recently made in the Parish Church. He reports contributions, £1: 1st Collection, £2 11 6: 2nd do. £1 6 8: Total, general purposes, £5 9 5.

SPRINGFIELD.—Rev. R. D. Palmer reports, that at a meeting of the Local Committee an unanimous vote of thanks was passed for the liberal grants made to this Mission, and a request that they may be continued. Contributions reported are, £6 19 4: 1st Collection, £1 5s.: 2nd do. 15s.: Total, general purposes, £8 19 4.

RICHMOND.—Rev. J. Neales reports the amount of contributions to be £28 4 6: 1st Collection, £2 5s.: 2nd do. £3 0 6: Total, general purposes, £33 10s.

PORTLAND.—Rev. W. Harrison writes, that the contributions from this Parish have considerably diminished for the past year, in consequence of several of the most wealthy subscribers having withheld their usual assistance. Contributions are as follows:—Widows and Orphans fund, 10s.: general purposes, £10: 1st Collection, £2 12 6: 2nd do. £6 0 3: 1st at St. Paul's Church, Rev. W. H. Shore, £5 12s.: 2nd do. Rev. W. Scovil, £1 7 1: Total, £36 1 10.

LANCASTER.—Rev. T. W. Robertson writes, that the Local Committee met on the 17th January, and passed sundry Resolutions expressive of gratitude to Almighty God for the continued success of the Society, and of their determination to support it to the best of their ability; of thanks for the grant to the Missionary, and for the books, requesting to be again had in remembrance; of disappointment, at the rejection of their application for aid towards erecting a chancel to the Parish Church; which application they renew.

The following Resolution was also passed:—"That the munificent bequest of £10,000 to the Diocesan Church Society by the late lamented the Hon. Ward Chipman, is a subject of the highest congratulation, and this Committee desires ever to hold in grateful remembrance the name of the pious donor."

Mr. Robertson, in remitting the contributions, which exceed those of the past year, urges upon the General Committee his application for aid in building the chancel to his Church, and begs to assure the Committee, that although large sums have been appropriated to the Church in his Mission, the general attendance at the four different Churches, two of which are opened every Lord's day for Divine service, the great improvement in the people generally, and their willingness to contribute, to the utmost of their ability, to any religious object, prove that they appreciate the blessings of the Gospel under an authorized Ministry.

Contributions are, Widows and Orphans fund, £8: general purposes, £7: Total, £15.

DOUGLAS.—Rev. A. V. Stuart writes, that the Local Committee of his Mission, after prayer for a Divine blessing on the labours of the Society, unanimously passed the following Resolutions:—

1. That this Committee are highly gratified to witness the renewed exertions manifested in all parts of the Diocese, in forwarding the work of this Society, so highly necessary to its prosperity.

2. That they would express their deep gratitude to Almighty God for the munificent bequest of the late much revered Chief Justice Chipman, which has cheered the hearts and strengthened the hands of all Churchmen in the Province.

3. That they deeply regret that the contributions from this Parish are in no proportion to its prosperity during the last season, but they still look forward with hope for the future.

The Missionary also thanks the Society for the grant of books, and hopes it will be renewed this year, as he can testify to their great usefulness, and the growing desire to read them, more especially at his upper Church, where numbers are every Sunday applied for.

Contributions are, £11 2 4: 1st Collection, £1 10s.: 2nd do. £1 18s.: Total, general purposes, £14 10 4.

WOODSTOCK.—The annual meeting of this Committee was held at St. Luke's Church on the 27th December, when it was resolved—

1. That while the success attending the efforts of the Society is cause of deep thankfulness to God, this Committee are conscious that the increasing wants of the Church demand from her members strong and united endeavours to give assurance of the continuance of the Divine blessing, without which all human exertions are vain.

2. That while this Committee join in the public regret at the loss sustained by the Church in the decease of the late Venerable Chief Justice Chipman, they cannot but feel lively gratitude at learning of his most munificent bequest to this Society, and this Committee humbly pray that the Almighty disposer of events may put it into the hearts of others to follow so good an example.

3. That whereas in consequence of the removal of the Rev. E. A. Warneford, (whose zealous services as Curate in this Mission during a year and nine months deserves special acknowledgment,) the charge of the Parish with a population of 4,000 souls, and the adjoining districts, have again devolved upon the Rector alone, who even with the most strenuous exertions, can but inadequately supply the spiritual wants of those committed to his care; therefore resolved, that this Committee urge upon the Society the necessity of a more ample provision towards the support of a Curate; every effort having failed to obtain the full sum of £50 heretofore required, by subscription; the people in the out-districts for whom the services of a Curate are more particularly required, and who are therefore expected to contribute the requisite amount, find it difficult to do so with the many other calls upon their limited means.

The Committee thank the Society for the grant of books to the Lending Libraries established in this Mission, and solicit further aid towards those important objects. Contributions as follows, £34 0 3: 1st Collection, £2 12 6: 2nd do. £1 13 14: Total, £38 5 10½.

KINGSTON.—Rev. W. E. Scovil writes, that this Local Committee met and chose their Lay Deputies on the 19th December, when they passed the following Resolutions:—

1. That this Committee take this opportunity of expressing their sincere regard for the memory of the Hon. Ward Chipman, who was distinguished, not only in his peculiar profession, but for his unostentatious exhibition, in an elevated station, of firm religious principle and pure moral character, having been a consistent Churchman, and an early and tried friend of our Church Society, towards the support of which he contributed while he lived, by his counsel, his influence, his alms, and his prayers, and provided for its welfare after his death by leaving it a magnificent bequest.

2. That this Committee recognize in his death a call upon the surviving Churchmen in this Province, in whatever station they may be, to emulate his good example, by co-operating with our Church Society; affording it an united, firm and steady support in carrying on its holy work.

3. That this Committee, sensible that the prosperity of the Church in this Parish is mainly owing, under God, to the Society for the propagation of the Gospel, (which is celebrating this year its third jubilee,) heartily unite in thankfulness to Almighty God for the success which he has vouchsafed to that great Parent Institution, in the varied and extensive fields in which it has now laboured for 150 years, and call upon the parishioners to contribute liberally in aid of our own Society, which is endeavouring to carry on the work in this Province which the Parent Society began among us.

An addition of books for the Lending Library is solicited. Contributions for general purposes, £29.

ST. STEPHEN.—Rev. Skeffington Thomson, L.L.D., regrets that his state of health renders it inexpedient to attend the meeting of the Society. He reports that the Local Committee met on St. Stephen's Day, and passed a number of Resolutions expressive of its continued confidence in the Society, as an efficient and faithful instrument for diffusing the principles of the Church throughout the Province. A most interesting Address was on this occasion delivered by the Rev. Mr. Duvell, of Calais, which was listened to with marked attention. Contributions reported by N. Marks, Jun., Esq., Treasurer of the Local Committee, £9 6s. 3d.: Collection, £4 10 9: Books sold, 6s. 9d.—£14 3 9: Subscription by Wm. Porter, Esq., M. P. P., paid in Fredericton, 10s.: Total, £14 13 9.

ST. PATRICK and ST. DAVID.—Rev. J. S. Thomson encloses contributions from this Mission amounting to £15 2 6. He reports the high estimation in which the Society is held among his people, evidenced by their ready willingness to contribute to its funds. They are most anxious to build a new Church on a more convenient site than that of the present dilapidated building, and trust the Society will lend its aid. A severe attack of illness prevented his attendance at the meetings.

NORTON.—Rev. E. A. Warnford writes, that the meeting of this Local Committee was held in the early part of December, when he was requested to thank the Society for the grant of books, and to request a further supply, as the two Libraries are very small and do not half meet the demand. They also request a grant in aid of building a Parsonage, which the parishioners hope to complete in the ensuing summer, two of whom have generously given to the Church five acres of the best land for a site. Contributions are as follow:—Missionary visits, 8s.: general purposes, £15 5 7: 1st Collection, £2: 2nd do. £2 3s.: Total, £19 16 7.

MAUGERVILLE and BURTON.—Rev. A. G. V. Wiggins, D. D., reports contributions as follows:—Maugerville, Widows and Orphans fund, £2 10s.: general purposes, £7 5 3: 1st Collection, 19s. 6d.: 2nd do. 12s. 11½d.—£11 7 8½: Burton, Widows and Orphans fund, £2 3s.: general purposes, £4 13 9: 1st Collection, £1 3s.—£7 19 9: Total, £19 7 5½.

WELDFORD.—Rev. D. J. Wetmore encloses an increased list of subscribers, and thinks that it will be even greater next year, as the people are taking more interest in the Society, and value the privilege of the Library more. They are thus enabled to read works which they have no other means of procuring, and he trusts they benefit by the perusal. Contributions amount for general purposes to £9.

QUEENSBURY.—Rev. H. W. Tippet writes, that his parishioners entertain feelings of confidence in the Society and gratitude for the assistance it has rendered them, and that they have cheerfully given to it according to their ability. He is also happy to say, that the attendance upon the public services of the Church suffer no diminution, although in three out of four stations in which they are held, the inconvenience and disadvantage exist of meeting in private houses. He writes, that he dwells in peace among his people, who with scarcely an exception pay in farm produce the amounts they severally promise.

"The Society probably remembers," the Missionary adds, "that this Parish has only lately (after many years of neglect) had the services of a settled Clergyman, and that the number of families in nominal communion with the Church does not exceed thirty. These are so scattered that it is impossible to collect them together in less than four stations for public worship: three of them have been regularly occupied, the fourth only occasionally; but I hope, as appearances there are more promising than they have hitherto been, when the spring opens, to take it periodically every fortnight."

He reports that the Church at the lower end of the Parish, towards which a grant of £12 10s. was made by the Society, is ready for plastering, and if the Society will grant the sum of £20 towards its completion, it will be ready for consecration next summer.

Contributions, £6 3s.: 1st Collection, June, £1 6 3; 2nd do. Oct. 6s. 3d.: Total, £8 5 6.

HAMPTON.—Rev. W. W. Walker regrets that owing to illness the subscriptions in this Mission were not made at an earlier day. He reports contributions in all to the amount of £24 15 3½, of which £4 is limited to the Widows and Orphans fund.

WATERBOROUGH.—Rev. A. Wood reports contributions to the amount of 18s.; in addition to which further contributions are reported from the congregation of St. James Church at the Jemseg, amounting to the sum of £20 11 3, and a Collection at the Jubilee Sermon on Trinity Sunday of £1 17 10, making in all from this Parish, £24 5 1, of which £5 11 3 is limited to Books and Tracts.

The Committee at the Jemseg earnestly solicit a grant of books.

The whole amount of contributions to the various objects of the Society thus reported, are as follows:—For Missionary visits, £1 8s; Sunday and other Schools, £1; Books and Tracts, £21 16 3; Churches and Chapels, £1 3 6½; Widows and Orphans Fund, £42 15 6½; General purposes, £958 14 10: Total, £1026 18 2. It will be seen by comparing the foregoing returns with those of the previous year, that from by far the greater number of the Local Committees an increased amount of contributions has been reported.

Surely it is matter of thankfulness, that notwithstanding many difficulties, and the small means of its members generally, the amount of offerings to the Society is so large. And our great hope may be, that as the claims of the Society are made fully known to each member of the Church,—the duty and advantage of supporting it,—all those at least who pray for the peace and prosperity of Zion will more and more unite in their prayers and their offerings.

At one of the earliest meetings of the Society, the Venerable the Archdeacon thus set forth its claims:—"We propose to send preachers of the everlasting Gospel into the destitute places of the land: We propose to give aid to Sunday and other Schools in which Church principles—principles highly favourable, we trust, to vital religion—are taught: We propose to circulate books, among which the chief place will ever be allotted to the Sacred Scriptures, and the Prayer Book of the Church of England; and we propose to provide buildings in which God may be worshipped after the manner of our fathers, and the people instructed according to His Holy Word."—For such objects, fourteen years ago, the Archdeacon claimed the support and prayers of Churchmen. We this day bear witness that his appeal was not made in vain.

PRESENT :

The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop, President, &c. in the Chair,
The Clergy and Lay Deputies.

Prayers.

Read Minutes of the last Meeting.

Read by the Secretary some further returns from the Local Committees, and also a statement of the gross amount contributed to the different objects of the Society, which is as follows: Missionary visits, £1 8s.; Schools, £1; Books and Tracts, £21 16 3; Widows and Orphans fund, £42 15 6½; Churches and Chapels, £1 3 6½; General purposes, £958 14 10:—Total, £1026 18 2.

Mr. F. A. Wiggins, from the Committee appointed to report the present available funds of the Society, states, that with the cash balance disposable on the 31st Dec. 1851, and the amount since received by the Treasurer, the Committee considers that the sum of £1091 may be granted this year, exclusive of any amount required for grants formerly made;—from which, deducting £665 granted last evening, there remains £426 at the disposal of this Committee.

APPENDIX.

A COMPENDIUM, or Summary Statement of the Constitution, Bye Laws, Objects, Purposes and Proceedings of the Diocesan Church Society of New Brunswick, 1852.

The Diocesan Church Society of New Brunswick held its first meeting at Fredericton, February 9, 1837. Previous to that day there had been several Meetings of the Clergy of the Province, the first of them in 1832, in which a very decided opinion had been repeatedly expressed in favour of "an active union among the Members of the Church, both lay and clerical, for the promotion of such objects as the Church, wherever it exists, must find essential to its welfare and utility." On September 3th, 1836, they again assembled at Fredericton, on the invitation of the Archdeacon, for the consideration of a plan proposed by the late respected Bishop of Nova Scotia, for the formation of "a Church Society in each of the Archdeaconries of his Diocese, to embrace all the objects of the Societies in England for the Propagation of the Gospel and for Promoting Christian Knowledge." At this meeting the Clergy formed the Society recommended by the Bishop, having agreed upon a Constitution, which was ratified and confirmed at the first meeting of the Society.

The following is a brief description of the composition of the Society, and of the different Committees, by whose agency its work is carried on.

I. THE SOCIETY.

The Society (by Rule III. of its Constitution) is composed of persons presumed to be members of the United Church of England and Ireland, who at any one time have paid a sum of not less than ten pounds to the Society, and by reason of such payment, are constituted Life Members; and also of such as pay to it annually any sum, however small. This sum (by Resolution 1838) is declared to be due at the Annual Meeting. The Society (by Rule XII.) holds an Anniversary Meeting at Fredericton and St. John alternately,—at the latter place on the Thursday after the third Tuesday in January, and at the former place on the Thursday after the second Tuesday in February. At this meeting the election of the officers of the Society takes place. The officers elected annually (by Rule IV.) are "one or more Treasurers, one or more Secretaries, and two Auditors of Accounts." The Executive Committee is also elected at this time: and all motions are disposed of for effecting alterations in the Constitution. It is necessary (by Rule XVIII.) that notice of any motion for effecting such alteration should be given at the General Meeting previous to the one at which such motion is to be made; and no article of the Constitution can be altered, except with the concurrence of two thirds of the Members present. And (by Rule II.) every alteration in the Constitution, before it becomes of any force, must be sanctioned and confirmed by the Bishop, by writing under his hand.

Special General Meetings are called by the Bishop, as President, upon authority given to him, for that purpose, by the Society, at an Anniversary Meeting.

II. THE GENERAL COMMITTEE.

The General Committee of the Society is composed of Clergy and Lay Deputies. The Lay Deputies consist (by Rule XIV.) of two Members of the Society elected by each Local Committee, at the annual meeting of such Committee. These Clergymen and Lay Deputies (by Rule XV.) meet in General Committee on the two days (or more if need be) immediately preceding the Anniversary Meeting. In this General Committee, all applications for aid out of the funds of the Society are considered and disposed of; and all grants of money made; all accounts passed; and in general all business transacted, in any way connected with the administration of the funds of the Society.

The powers of the Lay Deputies (by Resolution 1837) are verified by a certificate under the hand of the Secretary of the Committee deputing, in form following, viz:—"This is to certify that A. B. and C. D. were elected at the Annual Meeting of the ——— Committee of the Diocesan Church Society, as Deputies from that Committee, under the authority of Article ——— of the Constitution. (Signed) E. F., Secretary." Dated ——— 18—.

In all cases of irregularity in the form, substance or mode of execution of the certificate, a vote of the General Committee is requisite to give effect to the appointment.

III. THE LOCAL COMMITTEES.

The Local Committees consist of all Members of the Society, residing in the several Parishes throughout the Diocese. They hold respectively an annual meeting (by Rule XIII.) on some convenient day previous to the Anniversary Meeting of the Society, at which annual meeting they elect two Lay Deputies from that Committee to the General Committee; and determine what objects they will recommend to the special consideration of the General Committee, in the appropriation of the funds of the Society,—it being competent (by Rule IX.) to any Member of the Society to limit his subscription to any one or more of the Society's objects, which he may be most anxious to promote.

The Clergy (by Rule XVII.) are requested to preach annually two Sermons in their respective Churches, on behalf of the Society, and to take up a collection on each occasion for its general purposes.

IV. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee (by Rules IV. and V.) consists of the President, the Vice Presidents, the Treasurer, the Secretary, the Auditors, the Clergy of the Diocese, and twenty four Lay Members of it, being either Life Members or subscribers of at least one pound to the funds of the Society, and annually elected at the Anniversary Meeting. This Committee has a Secretary elected at the same meeting. It meets at Fredericton and St. John alternately on the following days, viz. the first Wednesday in January; the day after the Annual Meeting; the first Wednesday in March; the first Wednesday in June; and on the Wednesday after the first Tuesday in October. By this Committee all business of an executive character is transacted, except such as is specifically committed to the General Committee.

V. THE DEPOSITORY COMMITTEES.

There are two Depositories for the Books imported by the Society, for sale and distribution—one at Fredericton, the other at St. John. Each of them is managed by a Committee, elected by the Executive Committee out of its own body, usually at the meeting which occurs on the day after the Anniversary Meeting. Each has its own Chairman and Secretary. Regulations are from time to time prescribed to these Committees by the Executive Committee, in addition to those contained in the Constitution. The Books and Tracts to be supplied (by Rule VI.) are to be in strict conformity with the principles of the Established Church, and (by Rule VIII.) none are to be imported or circulated, which are not in the Catalogue of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, except such as the Bishop shall approve,—such approval (by Resolution of the Executive Committee 1849) to be manifested only by his Lordship's signature. Additional regulations were ordered by the Executive Committee, March 6, 1850. (See 15th Report, page 25.)

VI. THE LOAN COMMITTEE.

The Loan Committee is also a Committee elected at the first meeting of the Executive Committee, which occurs after the Anniversary Meeting, and out of that body. It is the duty of the Committee to effect proper investments of the Society's funds; in the performance of which duty, the members of it are guided by instructions from the Executive Committee. Regulations were enacted for their guidance, June 7, 1848. (See 13th Report, page 19.)

VII. THE OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY.

The respective Lieutenant Governors of the Province in succession, since the formation of the Society, viz. Sir Archibald Campbell, Sir John Harvey, Sir William M. G. Colebrooke, and Sir Edmund W. Head, have been severally pleased to accept the office of Patron of the Society.

The Lord Bishop of the Diocese (by Rule IV.) is declared to be the President of the Society.

The Archdeacon of the Province (by the same Rule) is declared its first Vice President, and (by Resolution 1837) there were nominated as Vice Presidents—being members of the Society—the Chief Justice, the Members of the Legislative and Executive Councils, the Speaker, the Judges of the Supreme Court; (by Resolution 1838) the Attorney and Solicitor General; (by Resolution 1841) the Master of the Rolls; and (by Resolution 1852) Frederick A. Wiggins, Esq. was elected in the room of the late Wm. Scovil, Esq.

The Treasurer, the Secretary, the Secretary of the Executive Committee, and the Auditors, are, as before stated, annually elected at the Anniversary Meeting.

VIII. THE OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY.

The objects embraced by the Society are (by Rule VI.) the following, and none other:—

1. Missionary Visits to places where there is no settled Clergyman, and aid to new and poor Missions.
2. The establishment of Divinity Scholarships at King's College, Fredericton; and assistance, when necessary, to those who may be under preparation for the Ministry, especially sons of Clergymen.
3. Aid to Sunday and other Schools in which Church principles are taught, and the training and encouraging of Schoolmasters and Catechists.
4. The supply of Books and Tracts in strict conformity with the principles of the Established Church.
5. Aid to the building and enlarging of Churches and Chapels.
6. Aid to the building of Parsonage Houses.
7. The creation of a fund towards the augmentation of the stipends of Clergymen who are poor; and towards the education of the children of such Clergymen; and towards the making a provision for those who may be incapacitated by age or infirmity.
8. The creation of a fund for the Widows and Orphans of the Clergy.

IX. THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY—as to

1. MISSIONARY VISITS.

For carrying out this most important object, the General Committee makes a large annual grant. Upwards of £700 is generally appropriated to the payment of allowances to different Clergymen serving in the Diocese, in sums of £30, £50 and £60, according to the amount of salary allowed them in other quarters. The number of such Clergymen is at present thirteen. The amount of capital funded by the Society for this object is, with interest, very nearly £400: and it is to this object that the munificent legacy of £10,000, recently bequeathed to the Society in reversion, by the late Chief Justice Chipman, is dedicated by his Will. For Missionary purposes the Society has already expended the large sum of £3,222.

2. DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS.

The sum funded for this object, with the interest which has accumulated upon it, is £60.

3. SCHOOLS. 4. BOOKS.

These two objects have been hitherto to a great extent united, the aid afforded by the Society to Schools being almost invariably in the shape of Books. The Books imported by the Society consist of Bibles, Testaments, Prayer Books, and the publications of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, together with such other works as may be selected by the Depository Committees, and approved by the Bishop of the Diocese. A grant of Books is made every year to each of the Local Committees of the Society, and a stock is constantly kept on hand for sale at the Society's Depositories at Fredericton and Saint John. The value of the Books already imported by the Society exceeds £2,200.

5. CHURCHES.

Since it commenced operations, the Society, at an expense of very nearly £1,600, has by its grants aided in the erection of no less than 49 Churches in different parts of the Diocese, and in the enlargement of 8 others: making a total of 57 Churches and Chapels built or enlarged.

6. PARSONAGE HOUSES.

At an expense of upwards of £300, the Society has assisted in the erection of 10 Parsonage Houses in the Diocese.

7. AGED CLERGY FUND. 8. WIDOWS AND ORPHANS' FUND.

The amount of the Society's capital funded for these two objects, till lately united, with the interest thereon, is nearly £700, the General Committee having made a grant to the Fund every year since the formation of it in 1846. Out of the interest which has accrued, allowances have already been made to the Widows of three deceased Clergymen.

All grants by this Society (by Resolution 1841) for any purpose whatever, become void if not claimed within three years from their dates respectively.

The Clergy are respectfully reminded that the month of October has been considered the most suitable time for the second semi-annual Sermon and Collection in behalf of the Society.

As the next Anniversary Meeting will take place in January, it is of the greatest importance that the annual returns should be in the hands of the Treasurer, and the Reports of the several Local Committees in those of the Secretary, on or before the 31st December, agreeably to a standing Rule of the Society.

Much trouble and inconvenience having arisen from the want of a little care in making up the Subscription Lists forwarded to the Secretary, and as mistakes may in consequence have arisen, for which neither he nor the Printer are finally responsible, it is particularly requested that in future the lists may be furnished exactly as it is wished they should be printed, and arranged in alphabetical order.

A large supply of Books, consisting of Bibles, New Testaments, Church Services, Common Prayer, and a general selection from the Catalogue of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, has lately arrived from England, and are for sale at the Society's Depositories in Saint John and Fredericton.
